Createspace, United States, 2013. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 229 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .This is an actual copy of the booklet format Petition for Writ of Certiorari that was accepted and filed in the Supreme Court of the United States on October 28, 2013. This petition was written by me as a pro se (or self-represented) litigant. Without the use of a lawyer, I learned the Rules of Court and the specific rules for the formatting of this booklet. The legal knowledge used to present my case on appeal stemmed from my many years spent fighting for myself and others in various courts in the United States. My experiences range from litigating cases in Small Claims, Civil, Circuit, Family, other lower Appellate courts, and finally the United States Supreme Court. I also have a paralegal certificate from a university in New York. In my quest for justice, I have found that if judges are fair, impartial and follow the law, you will win if your case is meritorious. It is only when lawyers and judges collude with each other behind closed doors that the self-represented litigant is denied justice. Knowledge is power. You can also win if you know the rules of court, the rules of evidence and how to write legal motions and other documents. You should also familiarize yourselves with legal research methods which will help you to find cases and laws that support your position. This book is about finding justice and not giving up. Courts of appeal are there to review what was done in the lower trial courts, so you should always take advantage of those venues. You just may win your case if the appellate judges reverse, vacate or remand the case back to the...
