THE COURT OF ARBITRATION (CLASSIC REPRINT) (PAPERBACK)

Forgotten Books, United States, 2015. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 229 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.Excerpt from The Court of Arbitration Mr. President, and Gentlemen of the Chamber of Commerce: In response to your invitation to address the merchants and business men of this city in relation to the Court of Arbitration, and the methods by which disputed questions can be brought before the court for adjudication, I have the honor to submit a few words. The court is the offspring of the commerce of this port, and its facilities for a summary settlement of disputes may be availed of by every merchant, and indeed by every resident of the great cities of New-York, Brooklyn, Jersey City, Newburg and Albany, as well as of any other part of the collection district of this port, upon all commercial and mercantile questions. The members of this Chamber may cite one another before this court, upon a notice of not less than two days nor more than five days; and both they and all other parties have the right to name additional arbitrators to sit with the official Arbitrator, if they so elect. If they so elect, then the case will go on before a Board of Three; if they do not so elect, then it will go on before the official Arbitrator as sole judge. The provisions for the correction of any errors which may creep into the decisions is ample and simple. The parties may have a rehearing before the same, or a new Board of Arbitration - in either case the judge continuing to serve - which amounts to a review by appeal, and is all that can be desired. The case of Becker vs. The General Insurance Co. of Dresden is...
