EDICIONES SM, 2002. Book Condition: New. El señor Noé quiere construir un arca para meter en él a animales de todas las especies. Es un trabajo complicado y surgen muchas complicaciones: ¿cómo iba a poner juntos al perro, al gato y al ratón?, ¿dónde construiría una piscina enorme para la gran ballena? Cuando estas cuestiones quedan solucionadas, surgen otros obstáculos, como los miles de ruidos y sonidos diferentes de los animales, la distinta alimentación para cada especie o las quejas de algunos animales como el hipopótamo, la jirafa o el gallo. Al final el señor Noé logra construir el arca y meter en él a todas las especies, y para entretenerles durante el tiempo que dura el diluvio, cuarenta días y cuarenta noches, les cuenta cuentos. Cuando el diluvio termina, salen todos los animales de su refugio. El señor Noé está tan cansado que instantes después ya está durmiendo.
